A Money Losing Sale on Cloaks

Our entire stock of Cloaks must be sold. Now is the time to make your selections. A money losing sale prior to inventory. The greatest sacrifice we ever made. Every article we quote is a positive loss. It will pay you to see them at once, whether you wish to purchase or not.
We are losing money on

100 REMNANTS OF DRESS GOODS.

Losing money on Jeans, Cassimeres and Tweeds. We have an unusual large quantity of the goods we advertise. We have sold the goods continually at the prices we say they are worth, and at the prices we now quote we know the like have never been known.
The line of Dress Goods we quote at 75c is far better than any dollar cashmere ever offered. The black satin rhadsms we offer at 75c cannot be matched elsewhere for less than 1.25, and the black gros grain silk at 79c has been our bargain at 1.25. This will give you a small idea as to the great cut we are now making during our Great Money Losing Sale.

GOVERNOR FORAKER was inaugurated yesterday. Governor Foraker is an Ohio man.

We have a beautiful spook story from Cleveland, Ohio, this morning. It is told in a spirited manner.

SENATOR PAYNE has been talking freely about Ohio men and things. It is said that the Senator thinks Cleveland a choice person.

FATHER JARDINE, of Kansas City, has severed his connection with this life by the able aid of cold poison. The Father has been a broker in petticoats to a considerable extent.

THE Italian government is getting frightened over a threatened incursion of American oranges and lemons. The Ministry of Commerce has probably been reading the Sacramento Bee.

SACRAMENTO is reveling in the seductive luxury of a circus fair. The Record-Union does itself proud by furnishing free facilities to the press-gang then and there assembled.

CALIFORNIA fruit-growers will find in our dispatches this morning some observations from the New York Tribune that will have a tendency to cause the sun east of thought to o'erspread their countenances.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal is bound to recognize royalty. It says: "The offices having given out, Ohioans are now holding meetings preparatory to proving themselves heirs to various vacancies."

THE New York Herald was one of the journals that labored vigorously to put the Democratic party in power, and now it is mourning over the mild expansion of the real Democratic doctrine by Senator Beck.

CINCINNATI is afflicted with an epidemic of sand-bagging. The police of that city do not appear to discourage criminal outbreaks with alacrity. Perhaps they devote more attention to less than bruisers.

ICE GORGES, floods, freeze-ups, marine disasters, snow blockades, destruction of human and animal life, people driven from their homes—these are some of the features of the gruesome tale that the telegraph brings from "the other side" to us of kindly California this January morning.

THE Morning Hour, of San Bernardino, has acquired a partner. Hon. A. E. Pay (ex-member of the Arizona Legislature,) secured the Associated Press dispatches and enlarged its borders, all within a few days. This looks like "business."

By neglecting vaccination the city of Montreal has been deprived of twothirds of her legitimate business for the entire season, and her municipal government has been taxed with a debt of $18,000 to take care of the sick and fight the mobs. Such ignorance doesn't pay.

THE Chinese laundrymen of Riverside, having been persuaded to leave the center of the settlement, have pitched their camp on the headwaters of Spring Brook, which has hitherto furnished the only drinkable water in the city, aside from wells. Now the good people of Riverside are "kicking" about their Spring Brook water.

> Who remembers to have seen a more perfect New Year's Day even in this glorious climate?
> Then there is a g. e. of Chicago? Well, we will be—doubted!

THE extremest anti-Chinese measure yet proposed is the draft of an ordinance submitted to the City Trustees of Sacramento by the Anti-Chinese Association. It makes it a felony for any Chinaman to reside in the city. Still, even that ordinance, cast-iron as it appears on its face, might be got around. The Mongols might work in the city and reside outside of the city limits.

AMONG the many State papers issuing embalmed New Year's numbers is the Alameda Semi-weekly Argus, which brought out an eight-page illustrated edition, full of good pictures, among which is the cut of a house bearing the legend, "The First—1850," and a companion picture entitled "The Second—1886." The one is a hovel, the second a palace.

SENATOR JONES, of Nevada, who recommences his journey to Washington today, is an enthusiastic admirer of Southern California as one of our own immigration circulars. He notes the marvelous changes that have taken place during the eleven years of his absence from this section, and anticipates a yet more brilliant development for the whole southern country.

Now that the California appointments have been submitted to Senator Dolph for consideration, with the understanding that his approval or rejection will be accepted by the Senate, the gentleman from Oregon becomes for the time being, in the eyes of the appointees in question, a bigger man than Cleveland.—San Francisco Post.

What about Miller and Stanford? Where are they, and whence has flown their Mooneys?

THE California fruit pack for 1884 and 1885 is published as follows: 1884—Table fruits, 339,900 cases; '85, 387,200 cases; pie fruits, 60,000 cases; '85, 30,000 cases; asparagus, 3,000 cases; '85, 1,500; tomatoes, 139,000 cases; '85, 70,000; jams and jellies, 35,000 cases; '85, 25,000. We do not vouch for the figures, which must necessarily be only approximate in their footings.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 11.—The ice gorge in Oswego river becomes firmer and larger every hour, as immense quantities of ice are constantly coming down the river. The water has risen more than two feet since last night, and is rising several inches an hour. The damage already done cannot be estimated. Full seventy five families have been driven from their homes, and others are constantly moving out. The families are poor and as fast as they are rescued are turned over to the poor authorities. All teams available are being used to remove flour and other goods from mills and manufactories. Grain in the mills is wet, and should the water recede the mills and factories are filled with ice, and as many of them had large contracts on hand the damages must be very great. Hundreds of people are thrown out of employment. Professor Boynton, of this city, was telegraphed for this morning to consult with the authorities about removing the gorge. He visited the place and says it cannot be done, and fears that the worst is to come. The gorge is now two miles long and is increasing.

WRECKED.

Vessels that Have Gone Down in the Wintry Sea.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11.—The schooner Crissie Wright, Captain Clark, which sailed from Baltimore for Savannah on December 30 last, was lost at sea off Beaufort, N. C., on Sunday. Only one man of her crew of eight was saved. The captain's body was recovered.

WRECKS AT COLON.

HAVANA, Jan. 11.—Advices from Colon say that twenty-one vessels were wrecked and sixty-four lives lost during the recent storm there.

IN THE RIGGING.

The schooner S. F. Kirwin, Captain Martinesu, hence for Baltimore, was sunk off Sewell's Point on Saturday night. The captain, mate and crew were in the rigging during Saturday night, and were rescued Sunday morning and brought here, all severly frost bitten.

HYLTON CASTLE FOUNDERED.

FIRE ISLAND, Jan. 11.—The British steamer Hylton Castle, Captain Colvin, from New York, January 9th, for Rouen, France, foundered twelve miles south of Fire Island light at 10 o'clock this morning. One boat, in charge of the first mate, with a crew of nine men, effected a landing five miles east of here. A second boat, with a crew of ten men under the command of the captain, left the steamer at the same time. When last seen, all but three of the oars had been broken.

A Cold Wave at Work in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 11.—The weather here is clear and cold. On Saturday night the thermometer recorded 21 degrees at the Signal office. Oranges remaining on the trees are frozen, and their loss will probably be heavy. Fruit in the trees, so far, are not much injured. It is slightly warmer to-night.

The Coldest Weather Ever Known in Tennessee.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Jan. 11.—The minimum temperature at the Signal office this morning was 2 degrees below zero. Dispatches from towns throughout East Tennessee, North Georgia and North Alabama say that last night was the coldest ever known. Stock is suffering greatly.

The Coldest Ever Known in Alabama.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 11.—The coldest weather ever known in the South has prevailed since last Friday night. This morning the mercury registered twelve degrees above zero.

A REAL LIVE GHOST.

And Frank Lamb, a Fresco Painter, Saw It.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 11.—About three o'clock last Friday morning Mrs. Emily Frayne, a widow, of Hamilton, Ont., who had come to Cleveland to visit her sister, who resided in a block on Prospect street, died very suddenly. Frank Lamb, a fresco painter, aged 33, who occupied apartments adjoining those in which Mrs. Frayne died, relates a remarkable story. He says that between 2 and 3 o'clock on the morning in question he was awakened by something, and looking across the room he saw a lady sitting on a lounge about four feet from the floor. "What do you want?" he asked. Raising her right hand the lady said, "Hush, hush!" and then she disappeared. Lamb is a disbeliever in ghosts, and at once made a search of the room, and examined the lock of the door. He found that the door was securely fastened, and, getting into bed, he lay for ten minutes, thinking about the strange occurrence. Suddenly the clothing on his bed was tumbled off on the floor by some unseen power, and he found himself on the floor. Getting up by this time, Lamb made another search of the room without finding anybody. He then opened the door, and as he did so Mrs. Hadden, sister of Mrs. Frayne, came from her room into the hall, saying, "My sister is dead." Lamb declares that he was not excited and that he was perfectly sober. Other people in the block who heard Lamb's fall, also left their rooms, and they corroborate his story as to occurrences. Lamb declares that he was "scared" Lamb declares that he was not excited and that he was perfectly sober. Other people in the block who heard Lamb's fall, also left their rooms, and they corroborate his story as to occurrences. Lamb declares that he was "scared" to begin with, but that he is not now. The coroner has decided that the woman's death was caused by heart disease.

Foraker Inaugurated.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 11.—The ceremonies incident to the inauguration of Governor-elect Foraker took place to-day. There were about 2500 of military and members of clubs present who participated in a procession and made a brilliant display. The Governor's party was met at the depot and escorted to the State House, where the inaugural exercises proper occurred in the rotunda of the Capitol. Governor Hoadly, in delivering the commission to his successor, gave expression to his own personal good will and congratulations.

Thurman Still There.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 11.—The Democratic members of the Legislature held an open caucus to-night, and nominated Allen G. Thurman for United States Senator, to be voted for in each branch of the Legislature to-morrow, and in joint convention of the two houses on Wednesday. Thurman received 38 votes in the caucus; Governor Hoadly 33, and one scattering. The nomination was afterwards made unanimous by a rising vote.

Terrorism in Panoche.

HOLLISTER, Cal., Jan. 11.—A letter received to-day from John Livingston at Panoche, by Sheriff Ross, says that he has been warned a second time to leave the country, the message intimating that he will never live to receive a third warning. Livingston appeals to the sheriffs of San Benito and Fresno counties to protect his person and property. The authorities will investigate the matter and take necessary precautions to prevent a repetition of the Powers case.

The Sand Lot Ahead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The order introduced in the City Council on Monday last by Supervisor Farwell, prohibiting sand lot meetings, came up for final action to night and was defeated by a vote of 8 to 4 on the ground that it was in contravention of the Constitution of the United States to trench on the right of free speech.

A Catholic Consistory.

ROME, Jan. 11.—An official consistory will be held at the Vatican, on the 15th inst., when Cardinal's hats will be given to several nuncios to great Catholic powers.

SACRAMENTO.

The Graceful Thing from the Record-Union.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—The Record-Union has tendered to editors and representatives of the press throughout the State rooms and all facilities at that office, for their use and convenience during the fair, together with the messenger service for carrying dispatches, etc.

A CHINESE EXCLUSION ORDINANCE.

An ordinance was submitted to the City Trustees to-day by the Anti-Chinese Association, which, if passed, will make it an offense for any Chinaman to reside in Sacramento. It was laid over for one week.

CRACKED THE SAFE.

The most successfully robbery committed here for years was perpetrated last Saturday night. The robbers drilled into the safe of Henry Schulmeyer, a wealthy butcher at Second and G streets, and secured $3700 in gold coin. There is no clue to the thieves.

CHINESE BOYCOTTING.

All the Chinese help at the Pioneer, Sacramento and Phœnix flour mills, Capital woolen mills and American laundry have been discharged. Work for 300 unemployed men can be secured at the Norris grant, chopping wood at good wages. Local boycotting is being carried on to such an extent that Chinamen are unable to secure employment, and they are emigrating to other localities. The business of the Chinese laundries and huckseteries is dwindling away to nothing.

DEMAND TO REPRESENT THE STATE.

The Governor signed the following document to-day: "In accordance with the power in me vested by the Constitution and laws of the State of California, I have this day appointed D. M. Delmas, of San Francisco, to appear and represent this State, or any county thereof, in any action or proceeding, now pending before the Supreme Court of the United States, involving the collection of revenue, in which the State, or any county thereof, is a party, or in which they, or either of them, may have an interest."

A GOVERNMENT SITE.

The government has purchased for $30,000 the site of the church in the northeast corner of Seventh and K streets, upon which to erect a government building, to be used as a Post office, Internal Revenue office and Land office. It has a frontage on K street of 120 feet; on Seventh 180. The buildings will be removed and possession granted prior to January 1, 1887.

THE NORTHERN CITRUS FAIR.

The Northern Citrus Fair was opened here to-day in the Arcade building. Seventeen counties are represented—Butte, Yuba, Tehama, Sacramento, Placer, Yolo, Napa, Sonoma, Solano, Amador, Calaveras, Colusa, Sutter, Nevada and Eldorado. The fact is amply illustrated that there is a very large and fine citrus belt in Northern California. One thousand entry cards have been already issued.

EASTERN MARKETS.

The "Tribune" Gives Some Fatherly Advice.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The Tribune, in an editorial, says: "In commenting on recent expressions of high hope on the part of California fruit growers, the Tribune has had no object in view but the presentation of those facts which must ultimately determine the matter. The people of these Eastern States would certainly welcome California fruits of superior quality in any quantity. If at present they are not enthusiastic over the enterprise, it is solely because they have learned from disagreeable experience how very little, on this side of the continent at least, the fruit growers have to do with the control of the market, and what wretched returns they receive from their labor. We have endeavored to make California fruit growers comprehend the situation here, since without such knowledge they can not succeed in their undertaking. Fruit growing in the East has largely ceased to pay, not because people do not want fruit, but because there are so many middlemen between the producer and consumer that the producer cannot obtain a fair price for his produce and the consumer cannot get cheap fruit. Should the California Fruit Growers' Union attempt to market their products on this side of old times they will soon find the undertaking does not pay. They must, in short, be prepared to meet strong competition and barriers very difficult to surmount.

"They may succeed, notwithstanding all difficulties in the way. We wish them success, but we are sure the best way for them to attain it is to master the situation thoroughly and allow full weight to all drawbacks at present existing."

SALT LAKE.

A Wanton Murder—Supposed Robber Caught.

SALT LAKE, U. T., Jan. 11.—At Nephi, Utah, yesterday H. H. Pearson shot and instantly killed Forest Green. They were in a saloon drinking, when Pearson shoved his pistol into Green's face and said, "I will shoot you." Green said, "Shoot me if you want to." Pearson shot, and then command ed a man standing near to turn Green over and see where he was hit. The ball went through the breast near the heart. Pearson was caught and lodged in jail.

E. Henderson, thought, from description, to be the principal in the express robbery lately in Canada, where $7000 was stolen, was arrested here to-day. He tried to get a $700 draft on San Francisco from each bank in town. He passed under two or three different aliases here.

The Finest Eating-House Burned.

WALLA WALLA, W. T., Jan. 11.—Shortly after the east-bound train left Wallula Junction on Sunday morning, a fire was discovered in the laundry of the fine hotel owned by the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, and in a short time the whole building was destroyed. The building was erected two years ago, and was the finest eating-house on the Pacific Coast. It cost $50,000 and was insured for $20,000. The furniture and saloon were owned by the A. P. Hotaling Company. Loss from $8,000 to $10,000; insured. The fire was probably due to a defective flue. The guests escaped with their personal effects, but very little furniture was saved. It is altogether likely that the company will rebuild the hotel immediately.

Collision on the S. and O.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 11.—About 8:30 this morning the, West Newton accommodation on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad ran into the rear of the McKeesport train standing at the salt works station, seven miles east of this city. The West Newton train was going at a high rate, and the engine crashed through the smoker of the McKeesport accommodation, filling it with steam. Fortunately the passengers in the smoking car were notified of their danger before the trains came together, and, by jumping from the car, escaped serious injuries. A number, however, were slightly cut and bruised.

Other Worlds to Conquer.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Intelligence has been received here that Germany has seized the Islands of Samoa in the Pacific Ocean. The King and his chiefs were insulted, and finally fled. A force of marines were landed from the German war ship Albatross. The German Consul then hauled down the Samoan flag and ran up the German flag in its stead. The Samoan government threatens to make war on Germany. The American and British Consuls protested against the action of the Germans.

Father Jardine Suicides.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 11.—Rev. H. D. Jardine, who was, some weeks ago, convicted, before an ecclesiastical court of Kansas City, of undue familiarity with female members of his congregation, committed suicide here last night by taking chloroform. The case is likely to create a great sensation in church circles, as Mr. Jardine is said to have been very popular.

To Abolish the Office of Lord Lieutenant.

DUBLIN, Jan. 11.—It is stated on authority that several Scotch and Irish Peers, both Conservative and Liberal, will support the motion of Kilmore in favor of the abolition of the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

CONGRESSIONAL.

A Large Number of Bills Introduced.

PUGH DISCUSSES THE SILVER ISSUE.

Brief Synopsis of Some of the Bills Introduced—What Weaver is Trying to Weave.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A number of petitions were presented, praying for the suspension of silver coinage.

Mr. Harrison reported favorably from the Committee on Territories an original bill to admit Dakota, and providing for the organization of the Territory of Lincoln.

Mr. Morgan offered a resolution relating to the trustees provided for by the Utah bill, to manage the property and affairs of the Mormon Church organization. The preamble to the resolution recites that the union of Church and State in the joint administration of temporal and spiritual affairs of any church or religious sect is dangerous to the freedom of religious worship and violates the principles of the Constitution of the United States. The resolution sets forth, among other things, that, in the opinion of the Senate, it is not within the power of Congress to appoint officers of the United States to participate with officers of any church or religious sect in the management of the affairs of the church or sect, and that it is a violation of the constitution for the President to appoint any such officer under any law. At Mr. Morgan's request the resolution was allowed to lie over.

Mr. Manderson called up his bill to increase the efficiency of the infantry branch of the army. The bill provides that each infantry regiment shall consist of twelve companies, one Colonel, one Lieutenant-Colonel, three Majors, one Adjutant, one Quartermaster, one Quartermaster's Sergeant, and one chief musician. All appointments to original vacancies above the grade of Second Lieutenant, created by the act, shall be filled by seniority in the infantry branch of the service. Mr. Manderson addressed the Senate on the bill.

Mr. Blair addressed the Senate on the bill heretofore introduced by him to provide for the erection of a monument at Washington to Lincoln, and another to Grant.

Mr. Pugh called up Mr. Beck's silver resolution, and addressed the Senate on it. With the aid of all the learning in the world, Mr. Pugh said, the greatest statesmen were still grappling with the money question at precisely the same point at which they began to grapple with it. So far as the United States is concerned, there never had been a time when our paper or metallic currency was so sound and healthy as to day. The condition of affairs and the premium on our bonds constituted a grim satire on the prophecies of opponents of the legislation hitherto enacted by Congress on the money question. Nothing was more to be desired, Mr. Pugh thought, than that banks, bankers and the federal treasury should stand aside and allow Graham's law to have full issue and free operation on our silver currency. He had much confidence in the political ideas, sound judgment and integrity of President Cleveland and his devotion to constitutional principles, but many Democrats would differ with the President on the money question and on details affecting the tariff. These questions were so far-reaching and complicated in their operations as not to be capable of a final solution satisfactory to all honest inquirers. He (Pugh) had given the President's message much consideration, but was constrained to differ with him in regard to money. Pugh quoted figures from the New York clearing houses to show that only about 3½ per cent. of the clearing house transactions were represented by cash, the remainder being made up principally of checks. Congress was confronted, he said, with an official announcement that our business relations had reached a crisis in which we must suspend the coinage of silver if we would secure international rates of interweek between gold and silver. The real point involved, Pugh believed to be, not the suspension but the total stoppage of silver coin, and if silver coinage were suspended now it would be a blow that would lead directly and speedily to the consummation of an organized conspiracy of capitalists to secure absolute control of all our currency and the regulation of the volume and consequent purchasing power. Pugh believed he spoke for the Southern people when he said three-fourths of them would today, if opportunity were given, vote against the proposition to suspend silver coinage. The petitions that came to Congress favoring suspension were all on printed blanks, and signed mainly by bankers. Pugh criticized the arguments of the Secretary and of the President. He inquired whether we were to take the mere dictum of the President on this matter, and insisted that the executive officers were under no obligation to enforce the laws of Congress. Why had those laws been hourly violated? Had Congress abdicated its powers to the Executive Department? The national banks, he said, were the fiscal agents of the government, should not, Pugh thought, have been allowed to become members of a clearing-house that discredited the silver certificates of the government. The national banks had evaded the law of Congress by agreeing that they would not offer silver certificates to the Clearing House. Such, therefore, none had been actually offered to the Clearing House. Why was silver opposed by the National Banks? Because silver was the only medium of our currency which they cannot control. "Stop the coinage of silver," said Mr. Pugh, "and those banks will become absolute monarchs of all the money." Both metals, Mr. Pugh insisted, were necessary, in order to counteract the constant tendency of money to contract under the vast increase of the values of the world. Without concluding his remarks, Mr. Pugh gave way to Mr. Edmunds, for a motion to go into executive session.

Mr. Vance gave notice that, at the close of the morning's business tomorrow, he would ask the Senate to continue the consideration of Mr. Beck's resolution.

Mr. Coke gave notice that, on Wednesday next, he would ask permission of the Senate to submit some remarks on the same subject. The judicial salary bill was then placed pro forma before the Senate, and the doors were closed for executive session. When they reopened, the Senate adjourned.

In the executive session of the Senate to-day, when the nomination of Dorman B. Eaton came up, Mr. Logan made a point that he (Eaton) was a Mugwump, and that the spirit of the civil service law required that one of the Commissioners be a Republican. Senators Evarts, Hoar and one or two others pleaded for Mr. Eaton's Republicanism. There are said to have been 14 votes cast against Mr. Eaton's confirmation, one-half of which were by Republicans.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Among the bills introduced in the Senate to day were the following:

By Stanford, granting the State of California 4 per cent. of the net proceeds of sales of public lands in the State to aid in the support of public schools; also granting California the right to select other lands in lieu of such 16th and 36th sections of public lands as may be found to be mineral lands; also providing that, in all cases of claims of land under the desert land laws, which may be suspended or cancelled, the persons entering the lands upon relinquishment of their title, shall be entitled to receive back all monies paid thereto; re-appropriate the unexpended balance of $8362 heretofore appropriated for the suppression of Indian hostilities in California; also a bill for the relief of purchasers of swamp and overflowed lands.

House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—On the reopening the call of States was resumed, and the following bills were offered and referred:

By Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama—Authorizing females to enter lands under the homestead law.

By Mr. Henley, of California—To promote the introduction of fresh water on the Colorado desert.

By Mr. McKenna, of California—For the appointment of a board of two army and two navy officers and one civilian, authorized to construct two gun foundries, one in California, at Mare Island Navy Yard or at Benicia Arsenal, and one at such other place as the board may determine, at a cost not to exceed $1,000,000 for each foundry.

By Mr. Townshend, of Illinois—Providing for the issue by the Treasury of silver certificates in denominations of one, two and five dollars each. (This is an amendment of the silver act of 1878, under which ten-dollar certificates are now issued. Its object is to supply the need for additional small bills as part of the circulating medium.)

By Mr. Weaver, of Iowa—To retire national bank notes and to prevent the fluctuation of the currency by the substitution therefor of Treasury notes; also to provide for the issue of fractional paper currency.

By Mr. Boutelle, of Maine—A resolution calling on the Secretary of the Navy for information concerning the truth or falsity of certain statements which have appeared in the public press, as follows: First, that the commander of the United States navy yard at Norfolk, Va., has caused the honorable inscriptions heretofore borne on the cannon captured by the United States military or naval forces to be obliterated; second, that he caused to be removed from the dry dock a tablet placed there at the time it was reconstructed, and bearing the inscription, "Destroyed by the rebels in 1862; rebuilt by the United States government in 1863;" third, that because of his protest against the removal of this inscription, the superintendent in charge of the work of rebuilding, has been removed from his position and a person who engaged in military service against the government appointed in his place. Fourth, that in disregard of grateful recognition of services and sufferings of persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the country, a number of such persons have been dismissed from employment in the Norfolk navy yard and their places filled by men who fought against the government during the rebellion. If these allegations are found to be true, the Secretary of the Navy is directed to inform the House, upon whose authority and in pursuance of what public policy, if any, such inscriptions were obliterated, and such persons dismissed from the service.

By Mr. Head, of Idaho—Authorizing a silver bullion fund for the purchase of silver bullion; to regulate the coinage of silver, and for the issue of silver certificates.

By Mr. Joseph, of New Mexico—To divide the Territory of Dakota and to create a Territory of Lincoln.

By Mr. Warner, of Ohio—For the issue of Treasury certificates on deposit of silver bullion; also regulating the payment of surplus in the Treasury of $50,000,000 on the public debt.

Notwithstanding the large number of bills introduced during the last call of States in the House, the call to-day brought forward 650 additional propositions, which, if introduced, would swell the number of measures now awaiting action by the House committees. The Speaker, after the call of States had been completed, called on the committees for reports, but, with the exception of the Judiciary Committee, which reported two or three private bills, there was no response. Adjourned.

WEAVER'S BILLS.

The bill introduced in the House today by Mr. Weaver for the issue of fractional currency directs the Secretary of the Treasury to prepare and issue fractional currency paper to the amount of $75,000,000 in denominations of ten, fifteen, twenty-five and fifty cents.

Mr. Weaver's bill to restore soldiers and sailors of the Army to their equal right with the holders of government bonds, appropriates $300,000,000 to pay them the difference between the value of the currency they received and the standard gold coin of the United States.

The bill introduced by Mr. Weaver, of Iowa, providing for the issue of certificates on deposited silver bullion, is substantially the bill prepared by him during last summer and published before the meeting of Congress.

JORDAN FOR TREASURER.

The nomination of Jordan as Treasurer of the United States, has been reported favorably by the Committee on Finance, and an effort is being made to expedite action on the part of the Senate so as to avoid any possible complication which might arise from the present situation in the Sub Treasury at New York. It is expected that Jordan will be confirmed by the Senate tomorrow and that a nomination as Assistant Treasurer at New York will be made this week.

They Are Getting Nervous.

ROME, Jan. 11.—The Ministry of Commerce has received a consignment of American oranges and lemons from New York, and have been sampling the fruit with a view to ascertaining the chances of America competing with the exportation of oranges and lemons from Italy.

A Million-Dollar Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—The extensive mill buildings in Kensington known as Aiken's mill, Beatty's mills, were destroyed by fire yesterday, involving a loss estimated at $1,000,000.

FATAL STABBING AFFRAY.

Last evening a fatal stabbing affray took place at San Gabriel Mission, Pancho Alviso mortally wounding Rafael Higuera. The two men are Mexicans, and have been on unfriendly terms for a long time. Last evening they met in a restaurant, and Higuera became much intoxicated. The old quarrel was revived, and finally Higuera, enraged at something that Alviso said, drew a dirk-knife and thrust it into the body of his assailant, inflicting a deep wound about two inches back of the left nipple. The wounded man fell to the ground, bleeding profusely, and was soon removed to a cot where, at the time the dispatch giving these facts reached the TIMES office, he was momentarily expected to die. Alviso was placed under arrest, and will probably get off on the plea of self-defense. An inquest will be held to-day.

A New Deal in the Ice Business.

A change in the ice business has taken place in this city. The Los Angeles Ice Company and the other old organizations have consolidated as the Union Ice Works, and when the season opens will import Alaska ice. The business of manufacturing ice has, by them, been entirely abandoned. A new ice company, to be known as the Home Ice Company, has been organized, independent of the consolidated concern. They are now putting up a building on Pearl street, adjoining the woolen mills, and will use the water power to manufacture ice. Their plant will be large and of the latest and best machinery, and they expect to be able to compete successfully with the imported ice.

The Up-Town Railroad Office.

A sign-writer was at work Saturday inscribing the legend, "Southern Pacific Passenger and Freight Office," on the plate-glass windows of the store-room in Baker block hitherto occupied by B. F. Coulter. Yesterday the office was opened, with that popular railroader and general traffic agent, L. E. Mosher, in charge. Chas. H. White, the presiding genius at the ticket office of the upper depot for lo, these many years, is to have a similar position in the new quarters. He will be succeeded at the depot by Frank Van Vranken, a young gentleman who comes from Passenger and Traffic Manager Goodwin's office in San Francisco.

Come or Send a Proxy.

The annual meeting of the S. P. C. A., for the election of a board of directors, will be held in Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow evening. As no active work can be done until the society is thus put upon a war footing, it is very important that a majority of the members be on hand. Those who cannot come should be sure to send their proxies. The Secretary will be at the hall half an hour before the meeting to receive dues.

Sierra Madre Oranges.

J. Hart and A. W. Brainard, of Sierra Madre, brought to the TIMES office Saturday a box of Navel oranges and Eureka and Genoa lemons, being a part of the exhibit made by the orchardists of Sierra Madre at the Pomological Association, meeting at Pasadena. The oranges are large, clean and of a high color, the texture of the skin showing the fruit to be in its most perfect state. The Sierra Madre tract is coming to the front as a producer of the best citrus fruits grown anywhere.

AN INDIAN SCHOOL.

How the Agua Caliente Takes Hold of Civilization.

A gentleman who lately visited Warner's Ranch in San Diego county gives a good account of the work of civilizing the Indians there in progress. There are about 150 Indians in the settlement. Their homes are clustered about the hot springs, known as Agua Caliente, and this has also come to be the name of the village. The Government supplies the men with farming implements, and they till about 300 acres, mostly in grain. This land is a part of Governor Downey's ranch, the Indians holding no title, but they are not molested in their rights of possession. In sheep shearing time they are given employment on the ranch, and prove a useful contingent.

A school, maintained by the Government, is under charge of Miss Flora Golish, who has devoted four years to this service. There are about twenty scholars in attendance and they have attained great proficiency in their studies, thanks to the long-suffering patience and tact of their teacher. They are clean and as neatly dressed as the average school children. Miss Golsh gave her visitor an amusing account of how she first secured an attendance in her school. The Indians were very slow to appreciate the value of an education when she began, and she resorted to the innocent ruse of telling them that as all the reports of her school went to the Government, if the Government found there were few scholars attending, it would think the Indians needed few schools. Placed in this business-like aspect, the idea penetrated the Indian cabess at once, and ever since the attendance has been full and regular.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ALVIN JOSLIN COMEDY COMPANY.—This company will appear at the Grand Opera House on Friday and Saturday, and Saturday matinee, January 15 and 16. They carry all their own scenery and equipments, and have a fine orchestra and brass band. The Newburgh (N. Y.) Register says: "Mr. Davis is a capital representative of the Yankee character, bringing to his task a genuine talent for impersonating old men's parts. The orchestra was the best ever brought to Newburgh. Such inspirations were dictated, and such persons dismissed from the service.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1886.

San Diego and the Railroads.

We print elsewhere in to-day's TIMES a quantity of railroad facts and speculations, taken from the San Francisco Chronicle and two of the San Diego papers; also a bunch of railroad notes. The matter appertains chiefly to the recent alliance between the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé and the Southern Pacific companies, by which the former secures for ten years the right, in the nature of a lease, to use the track of the latter from Mojave to the bay of San Francisco at Oakland. It is a most important move on the railroad chessboard, and does not seem to please San Diego, albeit the papers of that place put as good a face as possible on the matter. They "kin eat crow, but don't hanker arter it."

There are two or three prime facts bearing upon the railroad situation, as it affects this coast and the overland companies, which, it seems to us, San Diego ought, for her own good, to recognize, and accept the situation which those facts indisputably create:

1. San Diego cannot expect, now or in the future, that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé railroad system will be content to make that place its only Pacific terminus. The demands of the freight and passenger business—in short—forbid the allied companies from confining themselves to so restricted a field.

2. San Diego must expect that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, or the system in which it is a leading link, will seek deep water on the Los Angeles front—either near San Pedro or Santa Monica. The nature of the case, the manifest requirements of land and ocean commerce, point to this early consummation.

3. San Diego should have anticipated from the very start that this new overland system would make San Francisco its ultimate objective point. It could not be otherwise with sagacious railroad builders—and it will be conceded that these Boston men are sagacious. San Francisco is the Rome of the Pacific Coast: all roads lead to it. This is the perpendicular fact of the matter, and it is only candid and right to concede the truth. This does not mean that Los Angeles, the southern metropolis, and San Diego and other points in the State, will not be largely benefited by this new and partially competitive railroad connection. They will be, and each will reap benefits in proportion to the natural advantages of its location, its commercial importance, its productive and shipping capacity, and the "git-up-and-git" of its people.

But the idea of a great transcontinental system making the "harbor of San Diego" its only Pacific terminus—it won't do; it won't do at all.

(My! what fun we'll have with the City of Bayonlimate now!)

We read in the Sacramento Bee as follows:

The Hon. J. De Barth Shorb, of Los Angeles, in talking to a San Francisco Call reporter the other day concerning the fruit industry, expressed himself as follows:

"The lower portion of the Sacramento Valley, and nearly all of the San Joaquin, it was proven, could, by means of irrigation, be made fruit-producing."

This is rather cool. The whole Sacramento Valley (not its lower portion alone) grows every sort of deciduous fruit to perfection, without irrigation, and last year supplied nine-tenths of all such fruits shipped from this State to the Eastern markets. And our citrus fair will show that the Sacramento Valley can produce better oranges than ever were sent out of Los Angeles.

This is the way those up-country people—the newspaper people—talk about this thing; and what they say makes good humorous reading. It is only a few days since the same paper, to-wit, the enraged Bee, contained the following "stinging rebuke," so to speak:

A Los Angeles paper has the impudence to insinuate that the carload of oranges recently shipped from Newcastle to the East was obtained from Southern California. A clipping from the Auburn Herald, republished in the Bee, effectually disposes of this insinuation, showing that all the fruit was grown in Placer county. The high quality of the fruit, as certified by Eastern dealers, is of itself sufficient evidence that the oranges were not grown at Los Angeles.

This ambitious and derogatory language might be duplicated by the Riverside claimants, but we are not in the habit of looking for such gall outside of those two places. Now, as a matter of straight fact, Los Angeles county grows both poor and good oranges; and when the people or papers of any other county assert that the same is not true of their orange products, they "lie like a tombstone," to quote a classical "reference to allusion" from Lord Chesterfield. What the TIMES claims in behalf of Los Angeles county oranges—and claims it with confidence—is this: Much of the fruit grown in spots—in large spots, too, such as San Gabriel, Sierra Madre, the Duarte, portions of Pasadena and Pomona, and other places where soil and climate are just right—is as fine as any grown anywhere, whether in Florida, the Mediterranean, the Pacific isles—or even Riverside. And by this assertion we propose to stand till the cows come home.

THE Supreme Court of California in a recent decision find that the Attorney-General, in accepting consent of judgment and partial payments in the railroad tax cases, took no steps to preserve the rights of the State to the balance due, amounting to about $2,000,000. And now it is announced that Attorney-General Marshall has started for Washington to argue the San Bernardino tax case before the United States Supreme Court. It is well that he is doing something to protect the interests of the State after such lashes, so to speak, and so much downright blowing as "Ned" has done in this matter.

Buena Vista Street.

Something of a controversy has arisen in the City Council on the question of changing the alignment of Buena Vista street on the hill, between Bellevue and Rock streets. As the lines now stand, Bellevue street is 80 feet wide as far south as Rock street, and thence southward only 60 feet. Owners of property on the west side, between Rock and Bellevue, wish to advance the line 20 feet, reducing the width of the street to 60 feet as far north as Bellevue. The reason assigned for this is that the hill rises very sharply to the westward at that place, and to grade back to the full width of the street would involve a considerable cut and a proportionately high and expensive retaining wall. Their desire seems to be more to save themselves expense than to acquire the extra strip of land. The narrowing of the street is objected to by owners on the other side of the way, because they think they ought to come in for an equal share of the land if the city has any to give away. There also arises the serious question, can the city ever alienate property once devoted to street purposes?

Another matter which agitates the Buena Vista people is an irregular, wedge-shaped projection tapering from nothing to twenty feet, and which forms part of a lot owned by Mr. Beaudry. This is known as the "Beaudry jog," and the unanimous opinion is that it ought to be condemned, and the east line of the street made regular.

Altogether, the Buena Vista-street problem threatens to be as vexatious as the Bunker Hill avenue controversy which agitated the people on the hills a few years ago.

THE ALLIED ROADS.

Further Details of the Atchison Contract.

San Francisco Chronicle, Jan. 7.]

The announcement in yesterday's Chronicle of the formation of an alliance between the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé and the Southern Pacific companies, excited a great deal of comment among railroad men, shippers and others, who watch the changes with anxious interest. Further particulars of the terms of the agreement were obtained yesterday, by a Chronicle reporter, from a gentleman well informed on the subject. It appears that the new compact is merely an amendment of the one made about three months ago, whereby the Atchison and Southern Pacific came to an amicable understanding on the disposition of through freight traffic to California points over their lines. The alliance is both offensive and defensive, while it effectually prevents interneciue warfare. It will preserve the interests of both roads against competition from the northern lines, and places them in good shape to solve future problems with which they may be confronted.

To contract, the minor details of which are now being perfected, will continue for ten years, and its terms amount practically to a rental of the road from Mojave to Oakland by the Atchison. The terminal arrangements, including steamer transportation across the bay of San Francisco, at the rate of five cents per 100 pounds, will continue as before, the Atchison being allowed joint control of the line only to the Oakland pier, and the cost of handling freight between Oakland and San Francisco, with clerk hire, etc., all included in the five-cent charge, will be deducted from the through rate. While it is doubtless understood by those conversant with such matters that the alliance is on through traffic only, it is well that this point should be settled in the minds of those who are not familiar with the subject of railroad compacts in such cases as the present. The Atchison will not be able to transact any local business between Mojave, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, San Diego and this city on which the Southern Pacific Company does not receive the full rate. By a misstatement in the details of yesterday, it was made to appear that the roads would divide the earnings on the same basis as that on which they are to run and maintain the road. As a matter of fact, the Atchison, while paying its share of the cost of maintenance and interest on the bonded debt, will only receive the earnings from the traffic which it is able to furnish for the road from its own line. The cost of the Southern Pacific was, in round numbers, $80,000 a mile, and its bonded debt is $36,000 a mile. Its interest account is $2160 a mile per annum, of which the Atchison will, by the terms of the agreement, pay 35 per cent., or $756. As the length of the line to Mojave is 382 miles, this would make the Atchison's proportion of the total interest payments per annum, $288,792. In estimating the cost of an independent line to this city, the Atchison people made their calculations on the basis of $20,000 a mile, with interest on bonded indebtedness at the rate of $1200 a mile. In the arrangement by which it secures joint control of a line at the rate of $756 interest per annum, it figures up a saving of over $400 a mile, a difference which more than compensates for the loss of local traffic for the first few years, when the competition between a new line and the Southern Pacific which would be bound to result, is taken into consideration. By this arrangement the Atchison is precluded from extending its line from Mojave to this city during the next ten years, but the terms of alliance are such that at any time it may desire to secure independent terminal facilities at this end of the route, it may do so.

THE WEST-BOUND TARIFF.

San Francisco Chronicle.]

An ominous growl comes from San Diego over what is deemed an unjust discrimination in rates by the Transcontinental Association. The west-bound tariff, which went into effect on the 1st inst., fixed the first-class rates to San Francisco from Missouri river points by way of all routes, limited, at $90, and unlimited at $84. The route to Los Angeles and Colton, unlimited, is placed at $84 by the Southern routes, while to San Diego the rate is made by the addition of the local rate from Colton. Thus a ticket to San Diego from any Eastern point costs the traveler $6 more than to Colton, Los Angeles or San Francisco. It was learned yesterday through the medium of the local agents that this discrimination is a part of the programme of the Atlantic and Pacific in carrying out its policy with regard to California traffic. The Atlantic and Pacific representatives stated in the transcontinental pool meeting at the Palace Hotel that they did not intend to make San Diego the Pacific Coast terminus, and were content to transact through business with Colton and Los Angeles. The other members at the meeting objected to the scheme of placing San Diego outside of the territory of the pool, but the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé and the Atlantic and Pacific carried their point. A gentleman who is thoroughly conversant with the intricacies of the passenger situation in the transcontinental pool told a reporter yesterday that the Atchison's plan was to bar the other roads out of the traffic of the California Southern south of Colton, and that this was the reason why the arbitrary policy had been adopted. The Atchison is not bound by the pool in making local rates, and as it controls the California Southern, it can make rates over its own line from St. Louis, Kansas City or other points through to San Diego on the same basis as to Los Angeles or Colton, while the other lines in the pool cannot obtain such a privilege, and must charge their passengers $6 each additional on first, second or third-class tickets. It is quite probable that, at the February meeting of the pool, San Diego will secure relief from this discrimination.

COMMENTS BY THE "SAN DIEGO UNION."

The rate to San Francisco is not correctly quoted by the Chronicle, $90 being the unlimited rate to that point. San Diego and San Francisco are on the same footing as regards unlimited tickets, but San Francisco has a limited rate of $84 which San Diego has not.

As for the rest of the article quoted, it is not very clear what it was intended to mean. There is a confusing of the Atlantic and Pacific and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé that gives it uncertainty. It should be borne in mind that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, the Atlantic and Pacific and California Southern are distinct corporations that have formed an alliance for through traffic purposes. In some respects they are independent and in some they are interdependent. The Chronicle speaks of "the policy of the Atlantic and Pacific in regard to California traffic;" of statements by Atlantic and Pacific representatives "that they did not intend to make San Diego their Pacific Coast terminus," and of the Atchison's plan "to bar other roads out of the traffic of the California Southern south of Colton," as if the California Southern was a factor in the railroad problem of small significance.

San Diego is not the Pacific Coast terminus of the Atlantic and Pacific, but it is the Pacific Coast terminus of the California Southern and the Pacific Coast terminus of a through transcontinental line, of which the Atlantic and Pacific and Atchison are the other links, a terminus that has already secured recognition as such, in the very important matter of through freight rates that are the same as to other Pacific Coast terminal points.

If the Atchison's plan is to bar the other roads out of the traffic south of Colton, and by manipulating its own local rates make the through rates to San Diego the same as to Los Angeles and Colton, it seems to be going about it very leisurely. When the facts come to the surface it will probably be made plain that the trouble at the transcontinental pool meeting grew out of the eagerness of the other Pacific roads to share in the earnings of the California Southern, and fix rates that would affect these earnings, although it was not represented in the association; that the Atlantic and Pacific and the Atchison denied the jurisdiction of the association over the rates of the California Southern, at least until represented in the association.

"IN THE SWEET BYE-AND-BYE."

And probably it is intended, in the fullness of time, to-wit, in February, to make the run to San Diego the same as to other points regardless of transcontinental pools, associations and things.

ALL SATISFACTORY TO SAN DIEGO.
From the SUN, Jan. 9.]

There is nothing in the railroad situation, as published in the San Francisco Chronicle of Thursday morning, that should cause any particular uneasiness in San Diego. The traffic arrangement between the Atchison and Southern Pacific systems, whereby the former is allowed to enter San Francisco over the latter's track, is nothing new. That arrangement was made a year ago (?) this simply renews it for a period of ten years, with a few changes in the terms. It forestalls any competition by way of San Diego, and throws our city upon its own merits as a commercial point for Southern California. It means that San Francisco merchants are debarred from using the San Diego route for their own benefit, and from the tone of the press we surmise that the fact is a great disappointment to them. There will be no discrimination against San Diego, and with a Pullman car service and the lowest rates for freight, she will glide smoothly on to that glorious destiny which is even now pressing so fast upon her.

[Good enough!—ED. TIMES.]

Railroad Notes.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé is said to be about to make contracts for the construction of 800 freight cars. Arrangements have recently been made with the Pullman company for the construction of fifteen passenger and five emigrant cars, and fourteen passenger cars from other manufacturing firms.

The total assessed value of railroad property in San Bernardino County is: Southern Pacific, $4,644,616; California Southern, $65,514.

The travel between San Bernardino and Barstow station, on the A. & P., is rapidly increasing. The Calico mining district is attracting the attention of people from all sections, hence the passenger travel over the cross line.—[San Bernardino Morning Hour.

It is announced that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé railroad will soon build 450 miles of new road. A dividend of one and one-half per cent. has been declared.

EARTHQUAKES.

Views of Col. Hollister, of Santa Barbara.

With the scientist who still holds to his belief in the old theory of internal forces causing earthquakes, explain how it is that there is an actual wave on the surface of the earth, like a wave on the sea?

There is always this wave in earthquakes of any magnitude, whenever there is any motion of the earth at all. That this wave exists at all times when there is what may be properly termed a earthquake, is proven by the concurrent testimony of many witnesses. I have seen it myself many times. THE G. T. IN SANTA BARBARA.

How He Hails There To Rest and Grow Strong.

A TOURIST'S LETTER.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., December 8, 1885.—The health-seeker or other traveler on first landing on the Asiatic side of the Pacific ocean is given by the European-Americans there the degree of Globe-trotter, with right thenceforth to affix the initials of that honor, "G. T." to his or her name! And surely a further degree is conferable upon those who, having trotted the world over for health or relaxation from over-work, finally reach this haven of delight. They will surely come to roost here with the birds of winter passage! And finding here that above all earthly sense of rest and peace, that sense of having left a world of care and chase and grit to the fullest heaver, ought they not to be honored with the title of Frat Globe-trotter, with the ex-offi-cio of "F. G. T.?"

It may be an old story to Pacific dwellers, but to the rest of the world north of the tropics it will be never-ceasing wonder for spring to begin in the first days of December! Yet so it is here. The rains of last month have been succeeded by two weeks already of that gladly-welcomed sunshine which seems to set Nature's heels to fairly dancing with the rhythm of the poetry and tune of the music in the air. The new growth of 1885 has already begun here. The hills and fields are of tenderest vernal green which typifies ever-renewing youth and life.

We spent December 31 at the hospitable home of Mr. W. M. Eddy, Santa Barbara's banker, and to see the familiar trees of our own New England associations—elm, sycamore, cedar and others—all budding out avowedly for the robins, bluebirds, thrushes and yellow-birds, just as in a New England April or May time, is a curious sensation for December. "Are these trees awake and their buds up for all day?" we asked. "Yes, indeed," was the reply, "this is our spring in Santa Barbara."

The hotels here are home-like indeed. The absence of trade, to any extent, keeps out that hone-gentrified atmosphere of hotel-dom pressure. Men and women pass their time as they will, and not in separate sex grange.

The Arlington is acknowledged to be the best hotel on the coast. It is like a retired country-seat, in the midst of gardens and with broad verandas, where its guests live most of the day, out of doors in the sunshine. The eastern veranda is like a sunparlor, about 150 feet long and 30 feet broad, filled with the fragrance of roses, geraniums and verbenas.

The hotel table is supplied from Colonel Hollister's big ranch, or farm, with all possible and some impossible (to us) fruits, and cream, buttermilk, honey and sweet cider, without extra charge. Nobody wants liquors of the stronger kinds. It is the place to forget them in.

The climate, unlike that of Nice and the South of Europe, does not send any one off as summer approaches. The thermometer does very here over fifteen degrees the year round. And there is none of that utter fear o'clock p. m. chill in the air, so hard for the weak to bear in the Mediterranean climates.

Besides the great hotels, there are very many hospitable boarding houses, suitable to all incomes.

We who write this testify in no selfish interest. We have to go back to our world of every-day work. But we want others to find what we have found here, strength and rest, to go back with us. And so we close with the greeting of the good Mission of Santa Barbara fathers to the world outside the cloistered peace of their lives.

PAX VOBISCUM.

RAYMOND HOTEL!

Lots for Sale in the

MARENGO TRACT

Adjoining above Hotel.

This tract has been subdivided, and the portion lying south of the Monterey Road is now offered for sale in lots of ten and twenty acres, or smaller, if more desirable to purchasers.

An abundant supply of pure water for irrigation and domestic purposes delivered in pipes from living springs on the land, at a pressure varying from 70 to 145 feet, will be sold with each lot.

The tract is distant seven miles from the Los Angeles Courthouse, and frequent communication is had daily over the Los Angeles and San Gabriel Valley Railroad, which has a station near the hotel.

The Raymond Hotel, the largest in Southern California, is situated on a hill on the northern end of the tract, and is rapidly approaching completion.

For further particulars apply to

W. G. HUGHES,
No. 10 Commercial st., Los Angeles.

Parties desiring to purchase will be shown the tract on application to L. G. Winston, living on the land near to and south of the hotel; or to O. R. Dougherty, real estate agent, corner Mission st. and Sylvian avenue, near railroad station, South Pasadena. dec6

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

The Johnstown Bank, a corporation,

Plaintiff,

Kenyon Cox, Eliza Adelaide Cox and Nathan Littaner,

Defendants.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, and the complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles, in the office of the clerk of said Superior Court.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA send greeting to Kenyon Cox, Eliza Adelaide Cox and Nathan Littaner, Defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court for the foreclosure of a mortgage described in the said complaint executed by the said Kenyon Cox and Eliza Adelaide Cox on the 18th day of March, A. D. 1884, to secure the payment of three certain promissory notes made by Shults & Company to the plaintiff, on the same day, for $3000 each, described in the complaint herein, and all of which have become and are now due and payable with interest thereon at six per cent, per annum from maturity, except that there was paid and indorsed on the note of $3000, due March 18, 1885, and the sum of $450, on June 15, 1885; said payments aggregating the sum of $2250—that the premises consequent, and which are subject to sale and the proceeds applied to the payment of the balance due on said notes, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum, and of $450 Attorney's fees for foreclosing said mortgage, included

Captain Chas. A. Dexter and wife have arrived at Los Angeles, and may be expected at their home in San Diego at any time.—San Diego Union, Jan. 8.

Sam Meyers, representing the C. B. Bishop Comedy Company, which will appear here on the 18th, 19th and 20th in Strictly Business and Widow Bedott, is in the city.

Hon. Chas. C. Davis, an ex-member of the Ohio Legislature and a bright young Cincinnati lawyer now located here, was yesterday admitted by Judge Brunson to practice in the courts of Los Angeles.

Stuart Strange, the boy of twelve, comes by the Orizaba this morning, about eighteen months ago he left England for Australia and early in December started for California. While yet very young he traveled with his father, General Stanley, through North Africa, including Morocco and Algiers. He was born in France.—San Diego Union, Jan. 8.

Improvements on the Second-Street Cable Road.

The sale of property by the Los Angeles Improvement Company the past week considerably beat any former record. A number of new houses are being put up, including one to be started immediately by Mr. Warren, a newcomer. As an example of rapid building, the case of Mr. Tuttle, a carpenter of this city, is probably without equal in Los Angeles. On Monday, the 4th instant, he bought a lot of the Improvement Company, and by Tuesday night had built a fairly good house on it and moved in. The house was not, of course fully completed, but answered the purpose of the family very well. The Improvement Company is about to carry out a most important enterprise. They have secured a water right in the Arroyo Seco, and in a few months they will pipe an abundance of pure mountain water all over their tract on the hills.

A Good Yearly Income.

If you are not ready to build your country villa this year, you are certain of a handsome income from your grapes until you build. Go Tuesday next, January 19, to Sierra Madre Villa, and buy of John C. Bell, the auctioneer, part of Hovey's celebrated Sierra Madre vineyard, on the A. & G. W. railroad, only 30 minutes from Los Angeles.

SENATOR JONES.

The Gentleman from Nevada Visits Los Angeles.

HIS FAITH IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Interviewed by a "Times" Reporter. He Knows Nothing of the Santa Monica Railroad. but Much About Climate and Things.

Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, came in from the north on his private car, Sunday. He was accompanied by his wife and children, and his brother, Sam L. Jones. The party stopped at the Depot Hotel Sunday night, and yesterday morning went down to Santa Monica, returning in the afternoon. At four o'clock a TIMES reporter found Senator Jones seated in the office of the Depot Hotel, submitting his shoes to the graces of "Nibsey," the liveliest and sanciest of local bootblacks. The Senator's big, pleasant face, ponderous form and ruddy color indicated good health, though he spoke of a recent six weeks' spell of sickness wherein he "came mighty near losing the number of his nose."

"Your visit is at an unfortunate time in point of weather," suggested the reporter, "and especially for a visit to the seaside. I presume you find much change at Santa Monica."

"Change!" responded the Senator; "I should say so! Why, it is eleven years since my last visit to Santa Monica. I had not seen the place since 1874 until to-day. When I left, there was not a house there. Now it is a very pretty and very promising seaside resort."

"You were largely interested, I believe, in the construction of the Los Angeles and Independence railroad, the present railroad to Santa Monica. Articles of incorporation have been filed here, you are aware, for another railroad to Santa Monica."

"So I heard to-day for the first time, while at Santa Monica. I don't know anything about this proposed road, its personnel or its inspiration."

"It would hardly seem as though a second railroad to Santa Monica, pure and simple, would be a remarkably paying investment."

"No, indeed—nothing in it, whatever. There must be something back of it, I should judge, though I have not the remotest idea what it may be."

"What would you think, Senator, of a railway line up the coast, striking out from the Santa Monica line below here, going through the Cahuenga Pass, up on the west side of the San Fernando, then into and through the lower Santa Clara valley, touching at San Buenaventura and Santa Barbara, thence on through the Gaviota Pass to the west and north of the Santa Ynez range, and so on up the coast, making connection with that narrow-gauge at Los Alamos, this side of San Luis Obispo, and maybe to Santa Cruz, or even to 'Frisco?'"

"Well, such a line could be built, and would open up a fine and practically undeveloped country, though it would be expensive. I have a great deal of faith in the future of Southern California. There is not another climate in the world so perfect. For everything that it is given not only endurable but enjoyable and delicious, for the dolce far niente of existence, this section seems to be the special pet of Providence. It isn't so much your orange groves, though they add beauty; nor your vineyards, fine as they are—it's this marvelous climate. It is superb! It has all the advantages of both the temperate and torrid zones, eliminating their bad features. Now you go to Long Branch and you have to contend with periodical invasions of myriads of mosquitoes; and when it is hot, it's hotter than—well, hotter than I like it. But you have here a perfect paradise. This is the best climate in the world, and it will always attract. Why, when I look at Europe and see how jealously they guard their soil—how every smallest patch is improved to the utmost, and supports a dense population—how each few acres has been the birthplace and support of generations of soldiers, I feel that we cannot throw aside any of our land and say 'it is worthless.' The area now unimproved in Southern California will some day support an enormous population. The area that would be developed by such a road as you suggest is a very rich one, and its development is only a question of time."

"Do you plan to make a longer visit among us, Senator?"

"No, not this time. We proceed to Washington to-morrow."

At this juncture Mr. Gill, of the Ogilby mining syndicate, came in to chat with the Senator, and the reporter dispersed.

Is East Los Angeles Losing her Grip?

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: We say it is a question,—and the principle reason is lack of a proper avenue and street-car accommodations with the city proper. Our citizens already complain that property is not in as good demand on this side as on the west side and hills north of the city, while our distance is less and the location more favorable. We notice but few strangers on our pleasant side streets, this winter, looking for homes—and why? A ride on our horse cars, and a trip past the depot, is enough. The same car takes them back again, and we see them no more. Some say they would not drive past that depot every day if we would give them a horse car on this side. Now, would the proposed bridge on this side help us? We say no—it would be worse than the Aliso bridge. Austin yesterday to 90 days each in jail.

City Surveyor Eaton's staff were all work yesterday, in the rain, making the preliminary survey for the proposed new grade of Hill, between Courthouse and First streets.

The Eureka carried three passengers north from this city. This is the third smallest fare in her history. Once she sailed with but one passenger; and once with none, when the Orizaba preceded her a few hours.

The meeting of New Englanders, to adopt a constitution and by-laws for the organization of a Yankee society, will probably be held in this city on Saturday evening, January 23d.

Justice Ramsey yesterday disposed of a bunch of vagrants as follows: G. D. Curtis $5, Hugh Davis $20, Thos. Riley $10, Wm. Edwards $10, Jas. Kelly $10, Joe Sutliff, through Wm. Rogers $10, W. T. Garrett $10—all committed. Joseph Ladd was acquitted.

Big Thing.

ABLE ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE CAHUENGA PHILOSOPHER.

An adjourned meeting will be held January 12th, at 2 o'clock p. m., at Nadeau House, to reorganize the Southern California Sanitary Hotel and Industrial College Association, under whose auspices the new breakwater and tramway to connect the back country with a good harbor is being projected. F. R. RAY, Superintendent.

The conditions under which this work is being done are necessarily arbitrary, from the nature of the ground and financial considerations. It is, therefore, compulsory with the projectors to proceed with great caution and circumspection. The estimates have been made for the work upon the basis of several preliminary surveys. The persons who have had the work to do, have done it to conform to the conditions controlling it, namely, that it should be substantial, and pay interest and tax on cost of construction.

A Pleasant Party.

A very pleasant party of ladies and gentlemen passed last Saturday evening at the rooms of Mrs. L. Jaynes-Putnam, the artist, on Temple street. Games, music and refreshments were the order of the evening. The ladies and some of the gentlemen are members of Mrs. Putnam's class. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Parcels, Mrs. Gale, Denver, Col.; Mr. and Mrs. Burke, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Prenniaer, Mrs. W. C. Given, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wood, W. C. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Bayder, J. G. Borgium, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stone, Los Angeles.

Colton Accommodation.

In about a week the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will put on a local accommodation train between this city and Colton. It will carry passengers only, and will make the single run in two hours, leaving here at 7:10 a. m. and leaving Colton to return at 4:30 p. m. New coaches are to be used. Captain Wm. Sippy will be in command.

A Golden Opportunity.

We offer to-day one of the greatest bargains ever offered in Los Angeles. We have a tract of land close to center of city which must be sold at once. A rare chance. Only about one-half cash.
HUFF & LINO,
106 North Spring Street.

The Rain.

A slight sprinkle, lasting but a short time, began at 1 o'clock Sunday. At about 9 o'clock the same night the moisture began to drop again, and the precipitation has been almost constant, though generally very light, ever since.

At Cost.

Attention is called to the card of Miss L. J. Hammond, in another column. Her establishment is well known for style and quality of goods, and she will sell at cost for the next 30 days.

AT THE TABERNACLE.

Closing Meeting of Dr. Munhall's Series.

Rev. Mr. Blanchard, who has made the most of the reports published in these columns of the revival meetings at the tabernacle, sends the TIMES the following report of the

CLOSING TABERNACLE SERVICE:

The sea of human faces that appeared to come and go at the corners of the great Union Tabernacle Sunday evening, was such a sight as one is seldom favored to witness in a lifetime. One of the most remarkable features of the evening was the extra number of ringers that occupied the elevated seats from which Professor Northrup's efficient choir have discovered sweet music night after night for the past five weeks. About 250 sang for the great throng Sunday evening, and entertained the thousands present with music of a high order, accompanied with two organs, an organ and piano, all in competent hands.

One thing noticeable in Dr. Munhall's making his announcements is that his personality is not excessive in advertising or speaking of his own efforts. He evidently has a good opinion of himself and his own capabilities; and why should he not? for he is really a smart man, a man of remarkable parts, whose poor seldom has artifice back of any other city. He took occasion during the introductory services to refer to some anonymous communications received—unsatisfactory, both alike to the physicians and their patients, but luckily closing his address to the women a week ago last Sunday, and other sermons he has preached here, saying some very plain things in a very pleasant way. It was difficult, for some time, to decide what was to be the drift of the evening's services, the usual order being somewhat changed.

The doctor commenced to talk with humorously the origin and work of the various churches, and the Sunday school history, and finally he came to speak of the existence and necessity for the Young Men's Christian Association, calling attention to its origin, and its growth all over the civilized world. In his remarks on the prohibition of the liquor traffic and the benefits of total abstinence, the doctor was fully applauded by the vast multitude. It soon became apparent that the evening's effort was in behalf of the Y. M. C. A., and a fine plea was made in favor of providing a more commodious and suitable building and facilities in this city for his noble organization. The doctor continued to hold the vast assemblage in rapt attention for a full hour with his experiences and observations in the work of the Y. M. C. A., and other humanitarian efforts in various parts of the Union, narrating some very interesting incidents of those rescued by this means from lives of dissipation and personal neglect.

The Doctor stated that $2,500 was needed by the Y. M. C. A. of this city for the current expenses of the year to carry on the work efficiently, and he felt as though he would like to ask for that amount before sitting down, but as $3,300 was raised in the afternoon meeting, he thought it might not be wise to do so. Dr. Seymour then submitted some resolutions to the audience, which were adopted by a rising vote, in commendation of Dr. Munhall and his work.

While the choir led in singing, "I am Bound for the Land of Canaan," the ushers took a basket collection. The Doctor requested that while singing the last verse the Chautauqua Salute be given by all, viz.: waving their handkerchiefs over their heads, which was done accordingly.

The second, or jubilee meeting, began with brief speeches by a number of the city pastors, among whom were Revs. Spenser, Ellis, Isham, Reves, Boal, Brown, Bradley, Dorsey, Hervey and Blanchard, and Mr. Culver, general Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., all expressing their high appreciation of the labors of Dr. Munhall and his efficiency as an evangelist and gospel preacher.

Resolutions were then adopted by the audience highly complimentary to Professor Northrup as a gospel singer and choir leader, to which he responded, thanking the people of Los Angeles, and especially the members of his choir, for the faithful aid they had given him.

Dr. Munhall also spoke very feelingly of the kindly associations he had formed and enjoyed with this city. He then formed the great throng of over 2000 in lines through the tabernacle, and while the choir and people sang, "Shall we gather at the river," he caused them to so pass around as to shake hands with himself and the new converts, which seemed to be a very pleasurable exercise, and doubtless a novel sight to many.

The Doctor then pronounced a blessing upon the multitude, and they slowly dispersed, it being nearly 11 o'clock.

HEAD, THROAT AND CHEST
275 N. MAIN ST.,
Next Diamond House, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the Avean system of practice, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood and nervous system, etc.

CONSUMPTION.

The earlier symptoms of this disease are a sense of weariness upon little exertion, a disposition to remain passive and lie a peculiar sensitiveness to the effects of cold and a shortness of breath upon moving quickly or ascending a hill; a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, flying pains throughout the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are worse towards or during the night, slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet and hands, and in many cases blue livility of the lips and nails of the finger nails.

The more advanced symptoms are wasting of flesh, diarrhœa, chills and fever, night sweats, expectorations of yellow pus from the ulcers or cavities in the lungs, with or without a depression of the chest, increasing weakness, and at last a closing up of the air passages of the lungs, causing strangulation or suffocation of the patient for want of power to expectorate the mucous from the lungs.

Heretofore this treatment of consumption has been considered unsatisfactory, both by the physicians and their patients, but luckily since the discovery of the Avean system of practice a few years ago, thousands of cases have been completely cured, where had it not been for this system of practice utter failure to combat the evils of the disease would have been the result in the present time. Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever. The following cases of consumption are curing cases of chronic diseases when all else had failed, and thereby persons suffering should try this new remedy before abandoning all hope. Asthma, bronchitis and catarrh are treated with the Massage treatment, by persons of their own sex. The Doctor Diagnoses disease after explanation from the patient, free of charge. His office hours are 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
